

Dutton Gregory principle sponsors of the Winchester Business Excellence Awards

The 2010 Winchester Business Excellence Awards promises to be a lively competition with entries from across Winchester District flooding into the Awards office organised by North Hampshire Chamber of Commerce & Industry.

The competition, which is supported by principle sponsor, Dutton Gregory LLP Solicitors is now in its seventh year. Organised by Hampshire Chronicle, North Hampshire Chamber of Commerce & Industry and Winchester City Centre Partnership - Winchester Business Excellence Awards has rapidly cemented its place as the premier event in the Winchester Business Calendar.

The competition welcomes Dutton Gregory LLP Solicitors as principle sponsor of Business of the Year Award for 2010. All entrants will be nominated for this award and identify businesses or organisations that have smart business planning, clever marketing and sound financials which combine to produce strong business growth. This award will be presented to a dynamic company with fewer than 200 employees and demonstrating excellence in all aspects of business performance. The closing date for all entrants is Friday the 16th October 2009.

Well placed in the UK Legal 500, Dutton Gregory has developed an enviable reputation as one of the south's leading commercially orientated law firms. Dutton Gregory was one of the first law firms to publish a quality guarantee to its clients and they work to the most exacting standards of professional skill, commercial awareness, client care and value for money. At the same time, substantial investment in quality assurance, communications and IT systems ensures continuing high levels of client care. Delivering first-class advice and ensuring a successful outcome are their primary goals.

Mark Broad, Partner comments:

"Dutton Gregory strive to be outstanding in every department and for every client. We are delighted to be part of an event that recognises the success and achievement of other Winchester businesses in accomplishing this shared goal"

"At Dutton Gregory solicitors we pride ourselves on working together to achieve a standard of client care and quality that exceeds even the highest expectations. This award is a mark of significant achievement that acknowledges the standards and qualities of local business and the contribution that they can make to the growing Winchester economy".

Finalists for the 2010 Awards will be announced in paper from the beginning of November. Companies shortlisted for an award will go forward for final stage judging later this winter, Winners will be announced at a glittering celebration dinner and awards presentation to be held at Winchester Guildhall on Friday 19th March 2010.
